

Radiofax – Radio Oddities page – Tributes

Ronan O’Rahilly 1940 - 2020

Covid 19 funeral details from Quinn’s Funeral Home, Dundalk:

QUINN'S
FUNERAL HOMES

Beautiful spaces for a celebration of life, funeral ceremony
or memorial service

Print

Share

Save

The death has occurred of
Ronan O'RAHILLY

London and formerly, Dublin / Carlingford, Louth

O'RAHILLY – Aodogan, Ronan. Passed away peacefully at Carlingford Nursing Home, County Louth, on Monday 20th April. Beloved husband to Catherine, much loved brother to Nuala, Roisin and Iseult, an inspiration to his nephews and nieces Lorna, Shane, Mark, Misty, Vanessa, Frank, Maria, Gina, Lucia and to his stepson Caspian.

May He Rest in Peace

Due to the current restrictions on public gatherings, a Mass for the repose of Ronan's Soul will be celebrated without the family or community attending. The Mass can be viewed online at 10am on Thursday, 23rd April. Please follow this link:

<https://www.mcnmedia.tv/camera/st-james-church-grange>

The restrictions necessitate that Ronan's funeral takes place in the presence of his family only. Please respect the government's advice, remembering Ronan and the family in your prayers in these next few days and into the future.

Those who would have liked to attend, but due to current restrictions cannot, may leave a personal message in the Condolences section below.

I smile remembering Ronan sidling to the telephone in our house... to dial the USA of course! Happy times.

What a man.

What a life.

What a loss - to both his family and the world.

Trevor Brook

OBITUARIES:

The Independent, Ireland

The Irish Times

The Guardian

Radio Enthusiast/Practical Wireless/Radio User